OUR POSITION IS...

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What is the P.N.A. (Professional Negotiations Agreement)?

Lindblad: Well, basically it's an agreement whereby the Board of Education and the Antioch Teacher's Association works-it's really a working agreement. It has, as a part of it, the salary schedule and salary guide. The salary schedule was tacked onto it last year. I like to consider it as a sort of rules and regulations whereby the high school district is run and the school board and teachers' association govern themselves. It is a procedure by which the two groups can get together and work. It is not so much up to this juncture, from the board's point of view, a document that should be changed drastically, often. We do believe that there always should be changes to the good, wherever possible. But, we have had the feeling that the teachers' association does wish to make changes in quantity each year. Whether this is true or not, it does have some validity to it in the amount of items that have been presented to us, especially over the last two or three years.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What is impasse?

Lindblad: Well, impasse is basically the point that is reached when the two parties cannot agree on the items that have been discussed regarding a change, or correction, or whatever. Now, it's at the point where both sides, presumably, have studied the various proposals. Proposals have traditionally come from the teachers' association side. The board has not gone into the negotiations with proposals from their end which they would want the association to accept. Consequently, if agreement cannot be reached on these items, then impasse is reached. I'm not, personally sure of this, but using last year's situation as an example, I've been told at several negotiating meetings that impasse occurred at the time the board's negotiator refused to go to a third party. This, it was told to me, was the basic reason for the strike last year.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Was this a violation of last year's agreement?

Lindblad: It could be. Actually, I'm really not sure for this reason: in all the communications, I've received no mention of a federal mediator-it was always a third person. Of course, we do have one further step after a federal mediator in our PNA agreement. Now, the board was under the impression that the reason for the strike last year was the elimination of the index. We were told this by our negotiator. I had the opportunity of sitting in on the last meeting before the index was a primary concern. Although he didn't say that was the reason for the strike of course, they didn't say they were going out on strike at that point.

So, whether there was a violation as such I can't, truthfully answer, because, up until the third negotiating meeting this year, I was still under the impression that the strike was due to the elimination of the index. This was when the remark was made that this was not the case, that the strike came about because of the fact that we would not go to a third party in negotiations. That our professional negotiator refused to do it. There's nothing in writing. We've looked back to find something on that. If this becomes a big problem, I personally plan to get on the phone and get a hold of Mr. Zweiback and find out as much as I can from him if this did happen.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What power does a federal mediator have? In other words, just what can he do?

LINDBLAD: According to the PNA agreement he has no power. The impasse was brought about and we were informed through a letter written to me that the teacher's association had requested a federal mediator. And, according to article 9, it does state that a written request by one party shall be considered a joint request. We abided by the rule and I informed the board, as a whole, of the action of the teachers' association and they affirmed that it would be the duty of my committee to talk to the federal mediator when he came. In fact, I had started to prepare some budget figures and information like that on the premises of him coming fairly soon. Since then, of course, I've been informed that the Teacher's Association received word from the federal mediation service that they will not come out unless there is an actual written request by both parties. Even though our agreement says that a request from one side will be considered a request from both. At this particular time, I, as an individual, or the committee, have not requested that a federal mediator come in the association has. Consequently, I have requested that the board, as a whole, make this decision. I feel that it's a decision that all seven members be in on-have a right to speak their peace and so on. I have talked to all six other members and they have all assured me to this point that, as it stands right now, if a federal mediator came they would want me or the committee to talk to him. The point that we have to solve is whether we will officially request him.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: If a federal mediator comes is there any agreement between the board and the teachers' association that his findings will be in any way binding?

LINDBLAD: No, absolutely not.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What, exactly, are the teachers' asking for?

LINDBLAD: Well, basically they presented us an increased salary schedule. Many of the items which have been presented to the committee do concern, one way or another, expenditure of money and this seems to be a big problem, really. Money seems to get in there no matter how you look at it.

There seems to be the idea that there was a carte blanche refusal of all items. We had tentatively agreed upon two or three items which were pretty much a matter of policy, really. The one article was where the committee wanted to have meetings on no less than a bi-monthly basis so that communications could be kept more or less current. The teachers' committee had asked if, prior to the hard negotiations, such things as the budget and financial condition of the school be studied jointly. We tentatively agree to it. The only problem would be that the budget is being worked on almost concurrently, or a little after you start your negotiations in other words a problem of timing. The one we had started to work on and had made some good progress, until a few little things were thrown in on the end which kind of derailed it, was the item where the teachers wanted the privilege of examining their own file. Now, we were running into a few legal things about confidential recommendations, things like that. The board just felt that those things couldn't be used. They had been given to the board in confidence, and if this confidence wasn't justified how could you get anyone to give you records and recommendations? So, we batted that around for quite a bit. And, I think, in principle, we were getting somewhere on it. But, of course, we didn't finish it out.

Another one we got started on-we actually got stopped on it-our so-called "Black Book." The teachers committee had wanted us to recognize them as the sole representative of everyone including the department heads. And we know what has come of that. We didn't get into that because the Black Book deal was being worked on and it would have been foolish to pursue it. (editor's note: The "Black Book" proposal is the report of a study which would place heads of departments on administrative status and, in effect, remove them from the jurisdiction of the Teachers' Association. The report is the result of work done by a committee made up of department heads and administrative personnel.)

Now those are basically the ones that we have had some kind of agreement on in some cases, naturally, not all.

Other items that we had talked about but not gotten into were the 'no-strike' clause. The teachers' association want it eliminated entirely. One that we were getting fairly close on was putting the salary guide and the PNA under one heading, like a master agreement. In the salary guide there were items that are strictly board policy which, according to law, we could simply not negotiate away. In other words, the reasoning behind the teachers' wanting to put everything into one package, I felt, was it would make everything negotiable. As it is now, your salary guide, as such, is not a negotiable item in its entirety. Most of the other items that were coming in were concerned with money.

Summer School story on page 12.

Now, somewhere along the line I think we have to stress with the teachers' association, with the administration, in fact with all employees of the district: money is very critical. Our new budget which should be published in August, is going to show us, in round figures, a little over $300,000 in the hole. We have basically worked out to cut back some $103,000 on it. Whether this $103,000 can be achieved or whether it is a utopian figure, or whether we'll achieve more, we don't know. We are making some progress toward it.

I think we had all hoped-probably falsely-that this (past) referendum could have carried. We had one very, very unfortunate thing hit us in the timing of the referendum. That was the fact that 2 days before the referendum we received the word from the County Clerk that actually our taxes were going to go down. Whether this could have had any effect on anyone voting yes or no is problematical. But, it could have been a good thing, we probably could have used it (if we had known in time) in our presentation.

Now, we had a decision to make on this referendum. We knew we needed the money not only for negotiation purposes with the teachers and other personnel, but also, for the education fund to run the school. We decided that we would take the so-called 'soft sell' approach to it, because we felt too much ballyhoo would just not do it any good. Now, all board members through telephone, personal contact, notes, letters, etc., got to as many people as we possibly could to explain the situation and tried to get them to vote yes. You know the results!

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Do the teachers and the board of education agree that the district is short of funds?

Lindblad: To this extent, several meetings ago we were given the impression, by the teachers' group, that they weren't quite positive that the district was in as bad shape as we were telling them. So consequently, they asked if they could have copies of the last several audits, which we agreed to, and to take these to someone in Springfield, auditor for the IEA, I think, that's a guess on my part, and have them examined. They did get their report back and their auditor stated to them that the district was not in good shape. Now, whether he gave them more information in more detail, I don't know.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Did they give you any kind of a figure at all?

Lindblad: No, none what so ever. The basic statement was the fact that the auditor did say that the district was not in good shape. (However,) no figure was given to us.

We are required by law to have a competent CPA go over our books. We have had several and, I believe they have all been good. They give us the facts and this is what we have to go on.

As a direct answer to your (previous) question: We still have, at this juncture, the feeling that the teachers' association does not quite believe us 100% that the district is in the financial shape it is.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Has the situation of last year affected this year's negotiations?

Lindblad: I think it has only affected it in this regard: I don't think it has affected our basic thinking (regarding) the association. The strike has been brought up - I think we all realize it's a little hard not to bring it up. It may have affected it in one section where we are working, that is the no strike clause which is in the agreement. The association would like it out and the board, at this particular time, has definitely decided that it will stay in.

There might be some underlying personal feelings. I can't in all fairness, speak for anyone else, but, I hope that such feelings have not been used to weigh thinking on any item with the exception of the no strike clause.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Was the fact of reaching impasse in any way predetermined?

Lindblad: No. In fact after the first two negotiation meetings I personally came back to the board and made the statement, in so many words, that we were going to be able to settle our matters and get through without any kind of worry about a strike, without a professional negotiator, or any outsider coming in. And, believe me, I felt this.

I felt this for several reasons. At first it was said that there were only a very few items in the PNA that they wanted to go over and negotiate. (We were asked if) the board committee would like to get those out of the way and then we could go into the matter of money. Naturally, we agreed that this would be a wonderful idea. At this time five or six items were presented for study - some of those which now we have tentatively agreed on.

As the meetings went on one or two additional items would be presented by one member of the committee and then another item would come from over there. All of a sudden it got to the point where our committee had items beginning to pile up and up. Plus the fact that by this time we were beginning to get some pretty solid money figures. I was beginning to attempt to convey to them that money was going to be a tremendous problem.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: In other words, before you went into negotiations, you were not aware that the district was going to be as financially tight as it turned out to be?

Lindblad: Only to this extent. I have to be awfully fair in this. The board was given several figures that I, personally, at that time, questioned. We were at one time given quite a large figure. Then, a short time later, we were given a smaller figure. Rather than go into great detail as to why this was done or why it happened - it was simply a question of not checking figures. When we went into negotiations, we did not think it was going to be as tight as it was, but we knew it wasn't good. In fact, we were tentatively beginning to think of a referendum, but only regarding such things as how much to ask for and timing and so on. But, by the time the third meeting came around between the negotiating teams we began to have a pretty good idea regarding the $300,000 figure.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Has the man who worked with the teachers' association or the man who worked with the board last year been involved, in any way, with this year's negotiations?

Lindblad: From the board's side, no. To my knowledge there has been no member of the board who has in any way, shape or form been in contact with any professional negotiator, and especially the one we had last year. Now I am 99% sure that the administration has not either, but, of course, I cannot say 100%.

Now, as far as the teachers' association is concerned, I cannot say that their man has been directly or indirectly concerned with the negotiations. But, I can say this. (One member of the teachers' association) made the remark to me that he, several times, was doing several things from the advice of their (professional negotiator).

Both men (last year's professional negotiators) have been mentioned in the meetings. Let me explain this, it might have been a turning point, I don't know. At the start both sides definitely played down the strike. But, in one of the presentations the teachers' committee flatly went after (Mr. Zweibach) pretty heavy. They went so far as to say that it was his refusal to implement the terms of level III regarding the third party participation that caused the strike. (They referred to him as) the man who repeatedly urged the teachers to strike. This sort of thing could have been the start of the losing of some of the good feelings which we had started out with.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What would the board agree to at this point?

Lindblad: Basically, I think the board could agree, in general, on most any item that does not require the expenditure of extra money. This has to be the focal point. We are seven people asking a whole lot of people to help us out for at least a year. We went to the people who pay the bills and we were beaten real badly. We know that there have been mistakes made in the past.

There have been things done which the board should have looked at a lot closer, not only in money items but in other items also: working conditions and so forth. I'm not denying this. But we feel that we want in all our power-whatever power we have to get the best education possible for these kids next year. We have repeatedly stated to the committee, and to many teachers individually, that we do not want them to leave. We feel that we have a good staff. But, we just feel that we don't want to go into any more of a difficult spending situation. We have authorized anticipation warrants. We are holding off to the last minute. I think we're going to have to issue some of them very quickly now to pay July bills.

If we could get the people concerned to realize that we're not a bunch of ogres, we're not trying to beat them into the ground, that there is no personal gain in this for ourselves what so ever. It would be the easiest thing in the world for us to sit there and vote for enormous raises for everybody in the place and worry later about where we're going to get the money. It's the easiest thing. A lot of schools have done it. But, we have gotten to the point now where we feel that we owe something to the general people, to the students, to everybody concerned. But, the only way we can do it is to get some help from everybody else. We can't do it by ourselves.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Is the board, at this time, expecting another strike?

Lindblad: No, I don't think so. Now, the reason I'm saying this is regardless of our past differences, we do believe that we have some pretty intelligent people. We have people on our staff that have homes here, have been here for a long time, have taught for a long time. They tell us they like the school, like the area. With the no-strike clause in the agreement as it is now, they could jeopardize this if they went on strike. I give the group as a whole more intelligence.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: What factor do you think would cause the teachers and the board to get together?

Lindblad: One thing I've mentioned several times that I think might help is a general, good old-fashioned bull session between the board of education and any and all the teachers who would want to come. This, as you may know, was once done before and I think we got started in the right direction. What happened I don't know. Because, once again, we walked out of that meeting feeling exceptionally good about the situation.

What one thing I don't know, except possibly two words: confidence and trust. Confidence and trust in each other. If the teachers would put some confidence in the board as to what they're trying to do for the school district, which is for the children and for them and everybody else concerned. And put some trust in the board that they are doing it for the good of everybody and not for themselves. Then, in turn, if the board could be given some substantial proof that the teachers, as a whole, are interested in the district. You see, what I think has happened from the board's standpoint is that slowly we've gotten the feeling that the teachers don't give a damn about the school. Now, this might be the farthest thing from their minds, but on the surface the things that happen that get back to us - we get the opinion that the teachers feel "I'm first, everything else is second." We feel that if the teachers would go along with us for at least this one year that they would not only help the district, I think they would help themselves more.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Has the board, last year or this year, broken the PNA in any way?

Lindblad: I'll give you one thing here which maybe could be termed as a violation. In a letter dated June 15 regarding a meeting on June 14 that got all goofed up, they felt that "by the board's committee not being there did not instill confidence, and so forth, that that we were not desirous of solving problems," and so forth. Heaven help us, that was the only reason we were working on anything. This is the only thing that I can think of off hand. And that, only in respect to the meeting not being held. Of course, as my rebuttal, it was my position that this meeting had only been called tentatively, and I was personally told that the meeting would be confirmed so that I could let my committee know. And this wasn't done. The bad part about this is that I was the only one that eventually came down there and it's the word of one person against three others. This, by the way, is the same letter in which they invoke the provisions of Article 9, which is the impasse.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Would you read the Article 9?

Lindblad: "An impasse occurs after both parties have considered the proposals and counter-proposals of the other party in good faith and when, despite such diligent efforts, no agreement can be reached on the subject being negotiated. During the course of negotiations, the respective committees shall make every good faith effort to reach agreement on all issues before invoking the following procedure."

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: Do you feel that these problems will be an annual event?

Lindblad: Right now, yes. I don't think it's just Antioch. In fact, I know it isn't. I think this is a national type of thing. I have information from all over the state where basically the same things are happening. I have the package from the Springfield district, and many of the things which they are asking for are almost word for word what we are being asked.

I feel that the teachers are being, to some extent, led. I compare it to the beginning movement in some other type of unionized thing that begins to roll and gets bigger and bigger. I feel that many of the things that the teacher has gained during the last number of years are good, things that they should have. But, we have to consider our problems a little differently because we are not in a profit making operation. The teacher chose his profession, had specific reasons for doing so, and had to know at the time that his salary would be paid by the public. Now, as long as the public is willing to pay taxes and let their taxes increase, any board is nuts not to reimburse their teachers for good work. But, what is happening all over the country is that this money is beginning to dry up. What is going to happen, I don't know. I hope that the time never happens that we up at this school, or any school, has to say we have to lock the doors, we haven't any money. I believe one school in Ohio had to do that.

I think that the teachers could work closely with the various boards of education and get these districts on a sound financial basis where the tax monies coming in would run it. But, if there are people in our schools who have made negotiations almost a secondary profession then the problem will continue. I only hope that as each year goes by both sides learn something and retain this learning so that each year the negotiations get a little less hard nosed.

THE ANTIOCH NEWS: In your personal opinion what is a professional teacher?

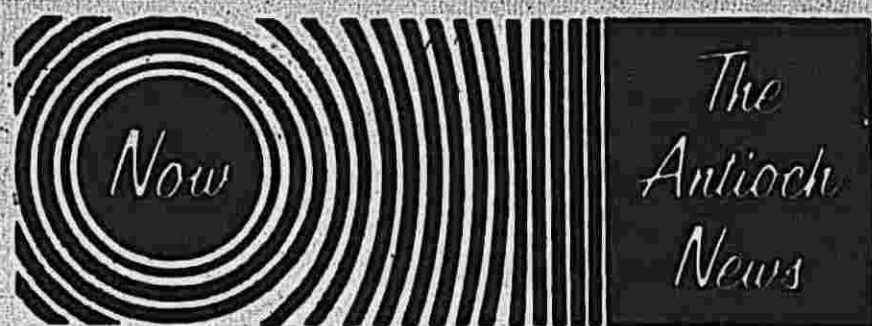

Lindblad: The professional teacher can be many, many things. First of all, he or she must have the appropriate education. I like to throw in a little outside stuff such as: devotion to the district for which they are working, 95% concern over everything they do for their students that what he or she is teaching that student will help them get what they need out of life.

I want the best possible staff for our children here at Antioch.

TO BE INVOLVED

The Citizens of Antioch are to be commended for their outstanding support of the Pancake Breakfast sponsored by the Babe Ruth League and the Little League. Over 900 persons expressed their interest in baseball and the young boys playing the game by patronizing the breakfast served at the Antioch Methodist Church last Saturday.

It brought to mind the fact that Antioch has many worthwhile organizations whose efforts at community betterment are pretty much taken for granted. Without these organizations, and the many projects they sponsor, Antioch would not be the outstanding community it is.

With summer at hand we find many of these organizations involved in fund raising projects to support their many activities.

On Sunday, July 25, the Antioch Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the King Brothers' Circus. Here is a chance to view an almost vanished art of showmanship. Only a very few of the great traveling shows still exist with their "girl on the flying trapeze," the elephants, the clowns, all the things that make the circus part of the romantic heritage of show business.

On Wednesday evening, July 28, the AFS (American Field Service) is sponsoring another evening in their Festival of Comedy film series at the high school. The amount of value which can be attached to having a foreign exchange student at the high school can probably never be accurately measured except by those who can view first hand the exciting exchange of opinions and cultural attitudes which these young people infuse into the mainstream of Antioch.

On Sunday, August 1, the Lion's Club will sponsor its annual Chicken Bar-B-Q in the parking lot of the swimming pool. No single editorial could possibly do justice to all the worthwhile projects, local and international in scope, which this organization accepts as its responsibility.

A community that becomes involved in supporting the various Civic organizations when these groups are trying to better the community as a whole, becomes in fact a very healthy and strong community. If at this time you do not belong or support one or all of our Civic groups, you should. Remember, be a member of the community in which you live, just don't exist here.

I write this short letter to express my great congratulations to the new Antioch News and its staff.

Success

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you lived. KANSAS CITY, MO. --

JAMES W. KOPRIVA, M. D. of Antioch has been re-elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, the national association of family doctors. Re-election signifies that the physician has successfully completed 150 hours of accredited postgraduate medical study in the last three years. Members become eligible for re-election at the end of the third year following their election to membership. The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only national medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The Academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., has been instrumental in the establishment of a new primary medical specialty in family practice. The new specialty is expected to increase the numbers of family physicians available to serve the public in the future. The Academy's postgraduate education program is the foundation of eligibility for family doctors now in practice who apply for certification in the new specialty.

BIG TOP in Antioch

Sunday, July 25 is Circus Day! The arrival of a real three-ring European style circus takes place in Antioch as the big KING BROS. CIRCUS arrives at daybreak for performances at 2 and 5 p.m. on the circus grounds at Rt. 173 and McMillan Road under the sponsorship of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce.

The circus will arrive on three colorful convoys and the always interesting and traditional spectacle of watching a tented circus city arise on circus morning is expected to start approximately at 8 a.m. at the circus grounds.

Most of the youngsters will be probably seeing their first traditional circus under the "Big Top" with all of its nostalgic excitement for the first time. Many of the oldsters on hand will be re-living some golden memories. The usual swift unloading of animals and equipment will be handled by circus workmen aided by the circus performing elephants, and out of apparent chaos will come orderly precision as the tented city is erected.

The KING BROS. CIRCUS, currently on its annual tour of the U.S. and Canada, is considered in circusdom to be one of the two major tent circuses in America today. There are more than 100 circus stars and performers in the 1971 edition of the big show, with several making their first appearance in America this year, having been brought from European and Asian countries by KING BROS. CIRCUS for this year's program.

Included will be high aerial thrillers, acrobatic and tumbling champions, tightwire wizards, spectacular trapeze dare-devils, juggling artists, a real wild west exhibition of trick shooting, roping and hazardous riding which is a part of the main performance.

Advance tickets are on sale now at the Chamber of Commerce office, the State Bank of Antioch, The First National Bank, the Antioch Savings and Loan and the Lake Villa Trust and Savings Bank.

IT'S HERE "The Fantasticks"

A magic night of theatre will be created by Palette, Masque, and Lyre when THE FANTASTICKS opens on the PM&L stage on Friday, July 32. The show will run Friday and Saturday, July 23 and 24 and Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, July 29, 30 and 31 at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch. Curtain time is 8:30 pm.

THE FANTASTICKS by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt and directed by Ken Smouse is a favorite of summer theatre audiences from coast to coast. It's sheer simplicity and beauty creates a never forgotten memory. Author Tom Jones says "I'm convinced that the simpler you do something the better off it's going to be. All too often in the musical theatre a great deal of effort is expended on things that have only a momentary effect without producing a genuine emotional response. Too many recent shows have relied on spectacle-elaborate scenery, tricky lighting, dazzling costumes, that sort of thing. If all people want is spectacle they can pay a lot less money and see the real thing in the movies. The proper words and music can evoke a spectacle in the mind that's so much more satisfying than anything the most skillful scene designer could possibly devise."

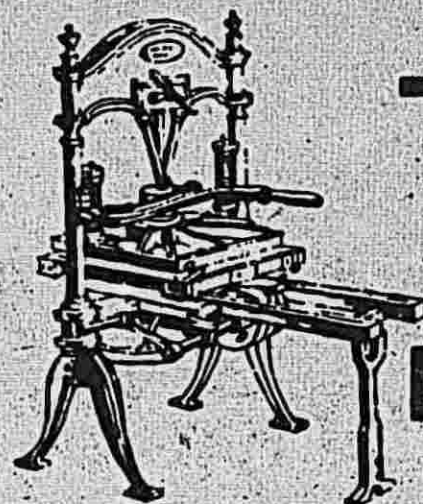

According to the stage instructions "This play should be played on a platform. There is no scenery, but occasionally a stick may be held up to represent a wall. Or a cardboard moon may be hung upon a pole to indicate that it's night. When the audience enters the auditorium, the platform is clearly in sight, and there is a tattered drape across the front of it upon which is lettered "THE FANTASTICKS"

And so the play begins. The actors enter. Lloyd Pedersen from Antioch stars as El Gallo. Lloyd has just returned from Disneyland where he had a two week engagement with the Wayne King Orchestra.

Dina Fabry from Lindenhurst and Jim O'Connor from Ingleside star as the romantic leads, Matt and Luisa. Al Ramsay from Duck Lake and Tom Hausman from Lake Villa are featured as the lovers fathers. Ron Koules from Round Lake Beach is the Mute, and Don Beveroth from Paddock Lake, Wis. and Bryan Sorensen from Antioch play the wandering Shakespearean actors.

Tickets are on sale at the State Bank and First National Bank of Antioch. They can also be purchased at the PM&L Box Office from 7-9 pm. on July 19, 20, 21, and 22. Reservations can be made by calling 395-9702. Tickets must be purchased or reserved in advance prior to performance to be assured of a seat. Tickets will be on sale at the door only if seating is available.

BOARD AGREES TO FEDERAL MEDIATION

At a special meeting of the Antioch Community High School Board of Education held on Friday evening, July 16, the board unanimously approved the request of Robert Lindblad, board representative to the teacher/board negotiating committee, that the board join the teachers in their request for a federal mediator. Mr. Lindblad was directed by the board to inform James Corrigan, teacher representative on the committee, of their decision.

The teachers have requested that the audits of the school district over the past few years be given to them for review. The request was approved on the condition that the audits be studied at the school and not be removed from the campus.

A general review was held of the items under discussion between the board and the teachers in the present negotiations.

The custodians have requested that salary negotiations begin between their staff and the board as soon as possible. The board had hoped that their negotiations with the teachers would be complete first, but this will not be possible.

It was pointed out at the board meeting that although the district has a low tax rate the school is spending more money per pupil than most other comparable schools.

"I've been working on the railroad," could be the answer of either ROGER SORENSEN or LYNN BARTHEL to my favorite question! Roger and Lynn are both working hard on the Soo Line this summer with their picks and shovels, wrestling ties. Roger has been working on the 22-mile stretch between Grayslake and Silver Lake. Lynn is on a tie gang that recently finished up in Antioch and moved up to Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin.

ROGER is a junior in marketing at Millikin University in Decatur. LYNN is working on his degree in engineering from the University of Missouri in Rolla. For a great time, Roger and Lynn recommend the 16-day Summer Festival in Milwaukee which started July 16.

We're pleased to report that some area college kids and businessmen have combined their needs, answering our SOS.

RON OZGA will be better prepared to return to Monmouth since Benes Construction Company has employed him to help with the high school remodeling.

Frank Sullivan & Co. needed a receptionist and DIANE HUNT was looking for a job so now Diane is busy this summer until she goes back to Wisconsin State this fall. She is a junior business education major at Steven's Point and she plans to be a teacher.

After finishing one year at Western Illinois University CHARMINE DANIEL has decided to be a career girl (for just a year)! She's working at the Bank of Waukegan and plans to return to Western after she's worked for awhile. However, Charmaine's sister will take her place at WIU. KAREN DANIEL will be a freshman there this fall.

Also at Western Illinois University is DONA GARRISON, an elementary education major who'll be sophomore this fall. Dona was working at Illinois Bell until the strike - now she works part time at Lorenz's but she's looking for an additional job to make the money necessary to return to school. So we ask again...

SOCIAL NOTES

by Del Jahneke

Guests three days in a row kept Mrs. Joseph Rhymers, Route 21, Antioch happily occupied. On July 11 and 12 her daughter and son-in-law, the C.W. Wikoffs of Urbana were her company. The Will Rhymers of Gurnee, recently returned from vacationing in Cameron, Wisconsin, were her visitors on July 15.

Mrs. John Handschiegel, Grass Lake Road, entertained nearly a dozen ladies at a Tupperware party in her home, Tuesday evening, July 13. This party had some unexpected excitement, not planned by the hostess. Mrs. John Denk hurriedly realized that she had better hasten to the hospital. The John Denks of Fox Lake became the parents of a "bouncing baby boy" at 5:30 a.m., Wednesday, July 14 at Victory Memorial Hospital. Our heartiest congratulations to this new family!

Walter K. Hills, Rt. 21 was transferred to St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee, where he underwent his third open heart surgery on July 13. He is reported to be in "satisfactory condition". Our prayers and best wishes for a quick recovery. Cards are always welcome, as all hospital patients know. Mr. Hills' address is: St. Luke's Hospital, 2900 West Oklahoma, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53215.

The Dr. Arthur Pauletti family, Grass Lake Road, had a wonderful nine day vacation, spent at the Sunrise Lodge, Land-O-Lakes, Wisconsin where they enjoyed swimming, fishing, nature walks, etc. "Bep" Pauletti remarked on the beautifully clear and clean air and water, in sharp contrast to the pollution of our highly industrialized areas.

Lakeside Rebekah Lodge 82 of Antioch will be holding a public card party and "Sandwich Bar" on Thursday, July 22 at 12:30 p.m. at the Antioch American Legion Home. Prizes will add "zest" to the occasion!

Thursday, at 9:30 a.m., July 29 will mark the opening of the 51st annual state convention, with a colorful processional of more than one hundred American Flags and Auxiliary Banners carried by representatives of the nearly 900 units from throughout the state. The Convention will continue on July 30 and 31, with an official attendance of more than 1500 members. Mrs. Bernard Schmidt of Moline, Department President, will preside at all sessions.

All past presidents on the Unit, District, Division and State levels, will be honored at the State Past President's Parley Dinner, held in the Grand Ballroom, Thursday evening. There will be a presentation of some dozen $500.00 nurse's scholarships to eligible high school graduates from various towns and cities in Illinois. A donation of $1,500.00 will be made to the maintenance of the Veterans' Craft Exchange, and there will be entertainment on the evening's agenda as well.

The second session of the convention will reconvene at 9:00 a.m. Friday, July 30 continuing until noon. Reports on all Auxiliary programs will be heard, and state awards given. Many distinguished guests will bring "Greetings", including the state Governor Richard Ogilvie and Mayor Richard Daley.

A Gold Star Luncheon honoring all gold star members will be held at 12:30 p.m. in the Randolph Room of the Sherman.

Polls for the election of state officers, delegates and alternates to the national convention will be open from 1:00 to 6 p.m. Friday, in the Press Room. Election machines are used.

Hospital volunteers of both the American Legion and the Auxiliary will be honored for their many hours of dedicated service to the hospitalized veterans, at the Rehabilitation Forum, held Friday at 7 p.m. with entertainment provided by the patients from the West Side VA Hospital.

Highlight of the convention will occur Saturday morning when the Auxiliary's National President, Illinois' own Mrs. Charles Shaw of Matton, will give the main address. Another feature on that morning's session will be the speeches of the Governors of Premier Boys State and Illini Girls State. This year's Boys State Governor is Stephen Wickes of Waukegan. Last year, Jeanne Casselberry of Lake Forest was Girls State Governor. The 10th District has been well represented by elected state officials of these two citizenship programs.

Installation of the newly elected state officers will be Saturday afternoon, with a reception honoring the unopposed candidate for State President, Mrs. Firman Hendricks of Cerro Gordo, afterwards. Mrs. Hendricks is a high school teacher.

Special guests of honor at the banquet Saturday evening in the Palmer House's Grand Ballroom, will be National Commander Alfred Chamie of Los Angeles, California; and Mrs. Charles Shaw. This party also honors State Commander R. Richoles and State President, Mrs. Bernard Schmidt.

Three members of the 10th District have already received state appointments. Mrs. Norman Holt, North Chicago will be State Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms; Mrs. A.J. Dorn of Mundelein, Department Junior Membership Chairman; and Mrs. John Chudzick, Lake Zurich, will serve as a State Board Member of the Veterans Craft Program.

Climaxing the convention will be a three hour parade down Michigan Boulevard, on Sunday, August 1, starting at 1 p.m. This is always a stirring parade, with its marching bands, beautiful floats, etc. and thousands of spectators.

Victory Carbide

Some 13 years ago a new, modern, attractively landscaped building housing the latest in modern machinery was built in Antioch's Industrial Park, and Victory Carbide Saw and Tool Co., Inc had successfully transferred its operation from Chicago to Antioch.

The move was made in order to place the new plant close to the hub of main radiating transportation arteries so that better service could be provided for their customers' world ranging demands. Another plant and service center is located in Memphis, Tenn.

The company was started by Cliff Vanderwerker, Sr., who has been in the saw designing and manufacturing field for well over 40 years. Upon his recent retirement, the operation of the company was handed over to his son Cliff Vanderwerker, Jr.

Victory's operations are extensive despite their rather specialized product. They manufacture a complete line of carbide tipped saw blades from the very smallest diameters to 48 inches and beyond. The line covers every conceivable type of blade and tooth design for all methods of cutting all types of materials. Other cutting tools produced by Victory include carbide tipped cutters, groovers, planer knives, dados, flooring knives and many other carbide tipped tools.

This is one in a series of articles giving the readers of THE ANTIOCH NEWS a closer look at the many fine and interesting manufacturing operations we have in our community.

DON FENCL grinding saw tips on an automatic grinder at Victory Carbide.

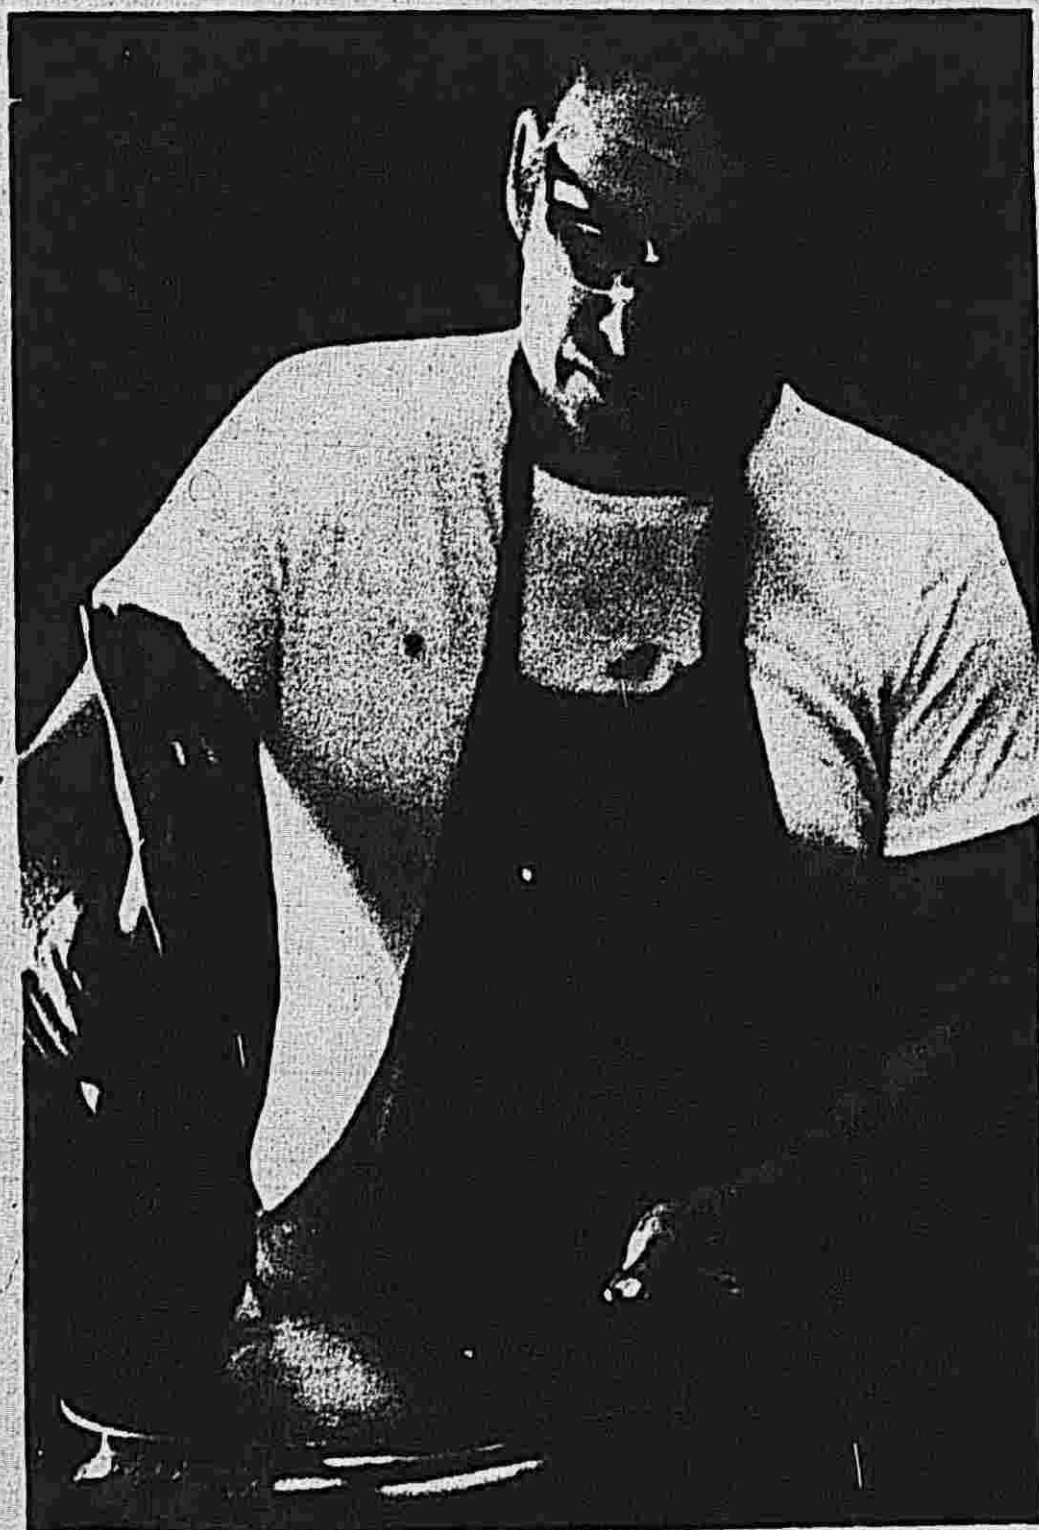

Their list of customers includes some of the world's largest manufacturers: Kroehler Mfg. Co., Celotex Corp., Johns-Manville, Armstrong Cork Co. Products leave the Antioch plant for distribution to almost every state in the union and to over 25 foreign countries. They are currently working on a special order for delivery to a plant in Taiwan.

The manufacturing process at Victory almost seems ironic. While these saws, blades, etc. are made for ultra high-speed cutting operations, the process through which they are created is almost a 90% hand operation in the Antioch plants. Of the about 22 employees of the plant, 95% of whom reside in the Antioch area, most are more craftsmen than mere employees. Each is an expert in his particular operation. No saw leaves the plant until it has been processed through some 24 operations from start to finish.

238 attend summer school

A CLASS in government listens attentively to Gary Allen, Social Studies Department Chairman. The Social Studies Department is responsible for many of the 326 units of credit being taken by students in the high school summer program.

Is year-round school a possibility in Antioch? There are some 238 students at Antioch Community High School who would say that it is not just a possibility but a reality.

These are the students enrolled in the ACHS summer school. If there are ever complaints that our multi-million dollar educational complex is dormant 25% of the year it is only necessary to step inside the building on South Main Street to realize the full extent to which the facilities of the high school are being utilized during the summer.

All levels of social studies, math and English are being taught along with typing, driver education (classroom work, simulator and on-the-road training), an extensive co-operative Work Training Program, and a Title I program. The 20 teacher staff works under the direction of Art Blecke, Director of the Summer School, to provide students with the opportunity to expand their education beyond the courses and time requirements of the regular academic year.

One of the more interesting programs in the summer session is the Title I program sponsored by the federal government. This team-taught class for entering freshmen has, as its basic philosophy, the idea that "school can be fun," and provides the students the chance to further develop the skills necessary for success in high school. The course covers the basic communicative skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening. It also includes creative cooking, physical education and (best of all) several field trips to points of interest in the general area. It is a voluntary program on the part of the 47 students involved with no credit being issued and no attendance taken.

The six week program will end on July 30th. On the evening of July 28th a Parent Evaluation Night will be held in the high school commons Room at 7:30. All parents of summer school students are invited.

MEMBERS of the Title I class try their hand at Creative Cookery under the direction of Mrs. Wapon of the Home Economics Department.

BIDS Open for facility

State Representative John H. Conolly (Rep. Waukegan) announced today that the construction bids for the eight million dollar residential facility for the mentally retarded children of this area will be opened at 2:00 p.m., August 11, at the offices of the Illinois Building Authority.

The Illinois Building Authority has advertised for bids which consist of one community center, one maintenance and stores building, five neighborhood houses and fifty duplex residences - complete with roads, curbs, sidewalks and related construction. These buildings will be located on a thirty-nine acre site adjoining Dugdale Park on the southside of Waukegan.

Conolly stated that there will be a pre-bid conference at the job site at 10:00 a.m., July 29. It is a requirement that contractors interested in bidding on the 400 resident center attend this meeting. Copies of bid specifications can be obtained at either the Springfield or Chicago office of the Department of General Services or at the office of the architects, Belli and Belli, Chicago.

Representative Conolly expects that the successful contractors will be qualified within a week after the bid opening.

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie will officiate at the ground breaking late in August and construction will begin immediately thereafter. Completion time will be one year. "The physical design and layout as well as the new concepts of residential care provided by the Waukegan Center are the most modern and far reaching in the world", said Conolly.

AGS BAND WASHINGTON TRIP

Playing on the Capitol steps was the highlight of the Antioch Grade School Band Washington Tour June 17 through 23.

First excitement on the tour was a concert at the VA Hospital in Coatville, Pennsylvania. Then the band moved on to tour Gettysburg on Saturday.

On Monday the Antioch Grade School Band played on the steps of the Capitol where they met Congressman Robert McClory.

After their thrilling appearance at the Capitol the Band played their third and final concert of the tour at Walter Reed Hospital.

While playing and touring their three days in Washington, the Band slept in Arlington, Virginia.

The Antioch Grade School Band, under the direction of George Olisar, makes their Washington tour every three or four years. All funds are raised by the Band members through such activities as candy sales, bake sales and tag day. There were also several donations made to the Band toward the trip.

Moto Cross

Editor's note: Until Mr. Ron Taylor of the Tot Shop asked me if I would be interested in doing pictures and a story on Moto Cross, I had never heard of this sport. My personal opinion up to that point was something less than good of motorcycles and motorcycle racing. I must admit that I was impressed with the sport and the men who are involved in it. I feel personally that this one of the coming sports in the U.S. and one that all ages can enjoy.

Fast starts in Moto Cross at Elkhorn. Note No. 16 on inside, Ron Taylor of the Tot Shop

There are many spectator oriented activities to be enjoyed during the warm season of the year. Among the newest of these is European Moto Cross Cycle Racing. Until recently the only events one could attend were motorcycle scrambles, hill climbs, and the like.

About three years ago two clubs, the SloPokes, Ltd., and the North Central Competition Riders, put into operation the first Moto Cross track in this area. The ensuing summer weekends have provided some of the most thrilling Sunday afternoons ever.

Moto Cross is the most spectacular and colorful racing sport to see. The toughest obstacles and the steepest hills are used, the track follows no set shape or form, the racing cycles used are designed expressly for the sport.

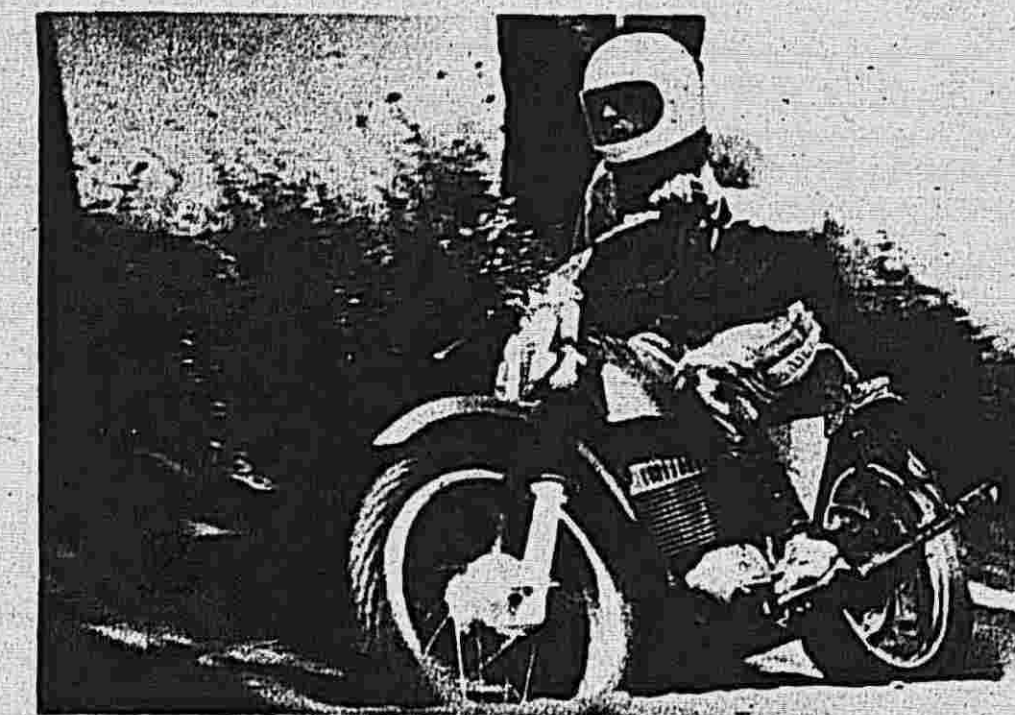

Picnicers and spectators wander around the track's obstacle areas during the race. Last year in Europe Moto Cross became more popular than soccer according to attendance figures.

The races or heats are run by class, which is determined by the engine capacity and the capability of the rider. The bikes range from 100 cc on up and run against other bikes of equal size. As many as sixty machines may run in one heat.

If you would care to get some real first-hand information stop in at North Central Suzuki in Antioch and speak to Roger and David Debenham or see Ron Taylor at the Tot Shop who race the machines themselves. Other fellows associated with either the bike shop or competition rider's club also race, and as everyone knows, there is one heck of a lot of enjoyment added to spectator sports when some of those participating are

VILLAGE BOARD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Antioch Village Board on Monday, July 19, was highlighted by parking complaints. The annual Appropriation, a new addition to Sequoit Terrace and the disclosure that there will be no federal money available for new construction on the sewage treatment plant until a much later date.

A group of women with Mrs. Edward Olzowski serving as spokesman registered a complaint with the Antioch Village Board that there was a lack of parking for people working in downtown Antioch. Mayor Toft agreed that there is a parking problem but stated that he felt "the problem of employee parking is really a problem of the merchants." However, as a temporary measure, the village board will allow the first three rows of parking on the north side of the village parking lot to be established as 12 hour parking slots.

A report of standing water behind the homes on Philip's Circle was reviewed. Since the water drains off private property located on First Street and onto the low lying property behind the homes on Philip's Circle it was decided that the problem is one which the home owners and the subdivision developers must solve and not a problem for the village.

Another complaint against Charbrooke Builders was presented to the board. However, the problem is not one which the village can resolve and the complaint will have to be taken care of by the parties involved.

The plat for the second addition to Sequoit Terrace was accepted by the village board after developer John Blackman agreed to four corrections.

Bartlett presented and the board accepted the audit report and instructed that it be filed with the state.

James Palm was placed on the village payroll as a dispatcher with the police department.

New helmets, coats and boots for the fire department were approved with a limit of $500 placed on total expenditure.

Repairs in the amount of $55 were approved for the washrooms at the Little League field. The board also agreed to help the Little League with current expenses with a $500 limitation.

A letter to the Upper Grade School was approved asking the school to cut as many weeds as possible under the direction of the weed control committee.

The Village Engineer reported that Federal funds will not be available at the present time to help with new construction on the sewage disposal plant. However, he assured the board that they will receive state aid for the project.

The board authorized the village engineer to draw up plans to widen Lake Street and Hillside Avenue.

Two Building permits submitted by H&B Builders were tabled for further study.

A revised annual appropriation ordinance of $884,050.00 for the Village of Antioch was approved unanimously by the board. The original budget figure of $638,850 was revised upward after review by the heads of the various village departments.

SWIMMERS OVERPOWER OLD WILLOW

Swimmers from the State Bank of Antioch sponsored Aqua Center team overpowered Old Willow's (Glenview) team by a 223-133 margin. It was a close race throughout the freestyle events, but then Antioch began showing its strength and steadily pulled away. Antioch was swimming with a juggled lineup for this meet due to vacations, baseball, and illness, but due to quite a bit of depth and determination, they relinquished very few events.

The youngest age group, 8 and under, and the oldest age groups, 15/16, continue to set a fast pace. The youngsters John Schmidt and Judy Houghton lead the way in freestyle. Johnny hasn't been beaten yet this summer and Judy got touched out by Old Willow for her only second place. In addition, both Judy and John have been undefeated in the 25 yard backstroke event. Backing these two up is Jeannie Cilik, a new "up and comer" who regularly scores second and third on the freestyle and second on backstroke. In the part of understudy are Mary Ann Cilik and Lesley Gallagher, both capable of filling in and scoring also. As for the boys, Teddy White got the third in freestyle against Old Willow and Ricky Sampolinski got a solid 2nd in the backstroke. Craig White (6!) was just touched out for third in the 10/under breaststroke event. What he lacks in size he makes up for in ability and "fight"! Vacationing Greg and Mark Shepard are also two regular winners in the 8/under group. Mark Reeves is steadily improving as a backstroke, Dan Gwaltney a freestyler. Rich and Jenny Lorang and Joan and John Bellucci are all improving.

For the older swimmers, Mike and Pat Muro continue their winning ways, Pat in freestyle, Mike in butterfly, backed up by Pat. Then they alternate in the individual medley or backstroke. Ed Berry is the third member of this terrific threesome. He holds down the breaststroke, and he and Mike Muro switch on taking the backstroke. The girls in this same age bracket are Barb Dodd, regularly winning in breast stroke and usually in backstroke and individual medley; Judy Berry, a winner in butterfly and scoring on free, back, or individual medley; Charlene Uresy, unbeaten in backstroke and a placer in freestyle; Sara Hollenhorst, always placing in breaststroke and fly; Linda Lagerstrom, and Cindy Hayden backing the others up with 2nd's and thirds.

The other age groups are contributing heavily too with their steady scoring. Jenny Schmidt, Jerry Schmidt, and Jeff Schmidt all win like younger brother Jong, as do the other Berry children, Carol, Suzy, and Dave. Other family teams of swimmers are Jack, Jody and Lynda Fields; Kate and Martha Hollenhorst; John and Kit Kakacek; Dave, Chris and Kevin Walpole; Steve and Mark Haley; Katy, Dave, and Tim Waite; the Jaworek brothers Mike, Alan and Phil.

All of these swimmers plus Mary St. Pierre, Frank Abderholden, Sue Solomon, Bob Dodd, Denise Shepard, Bill Garrels, Kim Klopp, Meg Eckert, Dale Gwaltney, Cindy Carney, Eva Auxier, Robby Neuroth, Dennis Brey, Scott Reeves, Kiki Wawro, Gina Teresi, Neil Fossum, Charlie Schrieber, Jeff Jenkins, Sharon Endean, Dave Quist, Linda Olson, and Dorothy Emmerich, combined for a great team effort and a nice birthday present for coach Marty Berry.

This week the team travels to Palatine (Plum Grove),

Cycle races at Walworth Fair

Many of the top professional motorcycle racers in the U. S. will be featured in the 1/2 mile flat track competition Sunday, July 25 at the Walworth County

Kenosha, Wisconsin (Bradford), and Sat., July 24, they take part in the North Suburban Conference Championship meet at Lake Forest.

Fairgrounds.

Time trials begin at 10 a.m. with races getting off the line at 1 p.m.

The track is located in Elkhorn, Wisc., just off Rte 11, less than 1 hour away from Chicago, Madison or Milwaukee.

The races are co-sponsored by Moto-sports Racing Circus Ltd. and the Walworth County Fair. The AMA-sanctioned 4-star races offer a purse of $1,200.

Tickets are available at the gate but may be purchased at a reduced price at most cycle dealers.

What's electric heat got that the others haven't?

There is no heat that is anywhere near as clean as electric heat. Because other heats use a flame. And a flame needs air. Some of that air comes from the outside, bringing dirt in around doors and windows. Dirt that wouldn't be there with flameless electric heat. And because you're not drawing in that dry outside air, you maintain a better humidity level. So you're more comfortable.

Electric heat gives you a wide selection of heating systems. Heating cables can be installed right in ceiling and floors. You don't even know they're there. But you'll be living cleaner and quieter. And because the heat comes from the ceiling, you can put your furniture anywhere you want it. And there's individual room control.

The same thing is true for baseboard heat. It's installed where you need it most. Like under windows and along outside walls where your room is coldest. Again you get individual room control.

And then there's an electric furnace. A furnace that has no flame, so you get a cleaner, more even heat. And if you prefer hot water heat, you can even have a flameless electric boiler. Think about what you're heating with now: the dirt, noise, and maintenance. Is it all worth it?

To find out which electric heat is best, where you live or plan to live, contact your nearest Commonwealth Edison Office and ask for an Electric Heating Consultant. (C) C. E. Co.

WAUKEGAN SPEEDWAY

July 17, 1971 - a spectacular crash in the last lap of the late model feature Saturday night involved the two leading cars and injured flagman Gordie Sill of Antioch at the Waukegan Speedway.

The heart-stopping accident saw leader Carl Major of Chicago and Tom Jones of Northbrook tangle as the two raced for the white flag signal. The cars collided and both veered sharply towards the concrete wall.

Major's Chevelle flipped off the concrete barrier, then nearly cleared the steel rail, sailing directly into the steel supports for the overhead starter's stand.

Sill, who is the son of promoter Gordon Sill, saw the high-flying car coming his way. He dropped the flags, turned on the red lights and hung on. The impact buckled the stand, but Sill managed to remain in the stand. He was taken to St. Therese Hospital for examination of knee and rib injuries, which are not thought to be serious.

It took wreckers 35 minutes to extract Major's smashed car from the wrecked rail and stand. The only danger to spectators came as several overhead electrical lines were torn loose during the accident.

Ironically Jones and Major both drive yellow Chevilles for Northside Auto Parts of Chicago and are teammates. A meeting with the drivers was held and they decided to declare the race complete at that point with the finish according to the way the cars would have restarted had the race been run a full 30 laps.

Since Waukegan rules place cars causing and stopping in an accident to the rear on the restart, Major and Jones wound up in 7th and 8th place respectively with Jim Cossman of Waukegan gaining the win followed by Bob May of Gurnee and Ray Young of Dolton.

Cossman, May and Young were immediately behind Major and Jones at the time of the accident and they had to do some fancy maneuvering to avoid the wreckage. Jones' car ended up in the wall adjacent to Major's car.

The race had been one of the closest ever at the track as Rich Oertel of Palatine led the first six laps before losing his brakes and brushing the pit wall.

Jones led from lap 7 through 11 before Major worked in front for four laps. Young led from lap 16 through 25 before Major regained the lead in the 26th lap. Major and Jones were racing even for the lead when the crash occurred.

The race was stopped three times previous, each for major accidents. In the first lap Lou Clavey of Deerfield spun causing Gary Zobel of Mundelein and Al Gutche of Bristol to collide. Gutche was eliminated with a busted radiator.

In the 13th lap Frank Cabrera of Chicago lost control and sailed high over the first turn wall. Cabrera was only shaken, but there was a 20 minute delay as three wreckers teamed up to lift the car off the wall. In the 26th lap Bob Delaney of Keeneyville blew his engine with Pete Brewer of Waukegan spinning into the pit wall and Young sliding into Delaney's car.

The race was close all the way with the lead five cars brushing in nearly every turn. In the 18th lap May dropped from second to ninth as he tangled with Jones and Major and spun into the infield.

The hobby stock feature race was run after Major's car was removed and the track cleared. Jim Gedville of Chicago, who flagged at Waukegan in 1969 and 1970, was on hand and handling the flagging chores from the infield. Ed Smith of Gurnee stayed out of numerous accidents to finish first in that race ahead of Ted Richter of North Chicago.

SUNDAY

July 18, 1971 - A long day's work on repairing Tom Jones' smashed race car from Sat. night paid off as Jones gathered in the late model feature lead in the 10th lap and sped home the victor in Sunday's 30 lap late model main event on the Waukegan Asphalt.

A good crowd turned out for the races which were delayed 55 minutes due to rain after time trials. It was the 5th feature win of the season for the Northbrook USAC driver.

Bob May of Gurnee looked to be back in stride as he won the third and fastest heat race for the late model class after a tussle with Ray Young of Dolton early in the race. May was running 6th in the main when an axle broke sidelining the current point leader in the ninth lap.

Jim Cossman of Waukegan, found engine damage on his car after winning Saturday's main on a technicality and also spent a full day in the garage. Although he was late for time trials, Cossman managed the night's best lap at 14.46 and ran second to Jones by four car-lengths in the main event.

Roy Acuff of Chicago, Young and Al Gutche of Bristol all led early in the main before Jones took over. Young finished third in the race with Lee Schuler of Lockport, in his first start, fourth in front of Acuff, Bob Roper of Chicago and Chuck Chadwick of Lake Zurich.

Roper had to win the consolation race in order to qualify for the main as he drove the Chevy II of last season. Chadwick ran second in that race.

Jones' closest competition came in the six lap trophy dash as he and last Sunday's feature winner, Bob Anzinger of McHenry were side-by-side at the checkered. Anzinger was third in the feature at 16 laps, but spun out in the next lap.

Cheryl Arndt of Milwaukee repassed both her husband Robert and Abel Avila of Zion to win the 12 lap hobby stock feature race. Tom Reutter of Gurnee won the "No clean passing" race which ended in a demolition event after Reutter had the checkered flag in hand.

Next Sat. night the late models will run their 50 lap midseason championship race and the hobbies will run in a 25 lap main.

IRA SUPERS START

SECOND HALF OF

'71 SEASON

This week the IRA super-modifieds will be starting their second half of the racing season and with 30 race dates remaining on the schedule, the point standings show the leading contenders to be defending champion Whitey Harris, Lake Villa and current overall IRA point leader, Johnny Reimer. Reimer leads at both Chicago area tracks while Harris has still managed to command the top spot at Lake Geneva with Reimer also number one at Wilmot in Wisconsin.

Last Wednesday night at Raceway Park, neither Harris nor Reimer won the feature. They were far down in the standings due to an unusual set of racing circumstances. Harris almost didn't get any points because his car broke an axle hub while attempting to qualify. Repairs were made just in time for him to take away what would have been top time trial honors for Reimer.

In the feature race, Harris was challenging Bill Bohn, a fired-up Bristol, Wisconsin Fire

Chief, for the lead when his rear axle again broke and this time Reimer was following so close that his car hit Harris' bumper hard enough that the cars were locked together. They continued for only three-quarters of lap before the race was stopped but then Reimer was two laps behind and he finished only 13th with Harris being awarded last spot.

The qualifying allowed Harris to gain two points on Reimer at Raceway. Reimer also leads at Santa Fe where the supers will race next on Friday August 20 in a 50 lap mid-season championship.

The win at Raceway for Bohn was his second of the year and he along with other top talented drivers will be out to upset both of the leaders throughout the remainder of the season. Third ranking overall driver is Champion Al Schill, Frankville, Wisconsin who has one of the best performing supers on the circuit.

Jim Sullivan, Fox Lake is 4th overall and he has already won three features and will definitely be a threat for the remainder of the season. This week, the IRA Supers again race their weekend Wisconsin tracks at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday night and on Sunday night at the Lake Geneva Raceway.

INJURED DRIVER RETURNS TO WIN AT WILMOT

Roger Otto, Burlington, Wisconsin, overcame the pain of injuries sustained at Wilmot a week ago when his transmission exploded and sent metal shrapnel into his feet and legs, to win the feature race there Saturday night July 17. It was the first time he had driven since the accident and it was his first feature win in Interstates Racing since June 24, 1970 and that came at Raceway Park in Blue Island. He became the 6th IRA driver of the season to win a feature at Wilmot out of eight features completed. Only point leader Johnny Reimer, Caledonia has scored more than once there this year.

Otto's win came before a crowd of 4752 fans that contributed toward a purse of $4720.00. The attendance, which was again over the all time high of last season but not a record, was attracted by the mid-season championship race for the Sportsman Stock Cars. Point leader Jack Ashenbrenner, Hales Corners won the Mid-season Title after being blocked for several laps by Jim Steckling, West Allis and Joe Gresk, Franklin as they raced side by side for the front spot. Ashenbrenner also set fast time and won his heat to make it his third clean sweep at Wilmot.

In the super modified feature, Otto started fourth and took the lead from Jim Boehles, Hales Corners in the 3rd lap. Ron Bergsma, Richmond took 2nd on the 6th lap as Reimer took 3rd. Whitey Harris of Lake Villa, moved into 4th on the 10th lap with last week's feature winner Tom Anderson, Antioch taking 5th on the 12th lap.

Then the serious hard fought racing started with Reimer moving up to challenge Otto for the lead several times for the last 15 laps but never being able to get far enough ahead to gain a margin over the inspired Otto.

The 24 car 15 lap semi-feature was only one lap old when the red flag had to be brought out. Ron Marish, Milwaukee, spun trying to go inside of leader Allen Kautz, Twin Lakes. Marish, was hit by Jim Cameron, Kenosha and a Massive pile up resulted involving seven cars. On the restart Kautz held the lead through the sixth lap when Dick Aissen, Ringwood took over in his Buick powered super.

Aissen finished nearly a half straightaway ahead of Jim Bozeman, Waukegan and George Fisher, Port Atkinson.

Don Sorce in the West Allis Salvage Super, broke the six in a row fast time honors streak of Eddie Loomis, Waukesha as he turned a lap in 17.79 seconds. The five 10 lap heat races were won by Bill Heberer, Glendale; John Rank, Milwaukee; Bozeman; Harris and Ron Bergsma.

Sportsman stock car heats were won by Dave Zilmer, Silver Lake; Joe Gresk, Franklin and Ashenbrenner. Zilmer was also a double winner as he won the sportsman stock car semi-feature.

Don Fernandez, Trevor was the only roll over victim as he flipped in the 3rd sportsman stock car heat following a fender rumble with Jim Blair and although he came back to run in the semi-feature he was not a contender.

A Tiger scoring as they try to catch up to the Cubs.

GAME OF THE WEEK

Pawlowski grounds out, Vos walks, Muse receives a single, Christiansen gets a double, and Vos and Muse score. The Cubs are off to a great start. But, the Tigers begin a bit better! Dave Gutowski gets a single, Schmidt hits a double, Pocrnich slams a double and Tom Gutowski gets a single. Add 'em up -- great? Nope -- somehow, only 2 runs scored.

As soon as the Cubs come to bat in the second they're off and running again. Rosenbrock walks, Pawlowski cracks a hit but sees Rosenbrock die, the victim of a fielder's choice. The next three batters shove Pawlowski around the bases. By the end of the Tigers short half of the second inning the score is 6-2.

Now the Cubs are really booming. Pawlowski scores for the second time, Christiansen scores for the second time, Vos and Muse cross home plate for the third time in the game. Bolton scores.

The Tigers half of the inning was almost as good when Jerry Schmidt leads off the inning with a walk, a fly out and a base on an error follow. Schmidt and Gutowski score and the Tigers are catching up. Then Jim Gutowski and Paul Boarini score off base hits. The score is 10-6 Cubs.

Dave Gutowski comes in in relief for the Tigers and effectively throttles the Cubs scoring drive. The Tigers try desperately to catch up but can only drive three more runs across the plate and the game ends Cubs 10, Tigers 9.

Winning pitcher, Ken Rosenbrock, losing pitcher, Kevin Gallaher.

GAME OF THE WEEK

Dodger advancing to third on base hit of teammate in the first victory against the Yankees this year.

The Dodgers got three men on in the top half of the 1st -- but none of them got past 2nd base. The Yankees, not quite as lucky, were three up and three down.

The second inning brought an end to the scorekeeper's vacation as Murphy got a double and scored on Houghton's single. Houghton scored off the bats of Dubek and Thibedeau. The parade continues with Briedel, Perlstrom and Dubek romping around the base paths -- and the inning ends with the Dodgers sitting on top of seven runs.

The Yankees are getting better--two get hits, but three are out--and still no runs.

In the 3rd the Dodgers repeat the 1st, with one minor difference. The same number of men get hits, but they add three runs to the scoreboard.

The Yankees are still having trouble getting anyone all the way around the park.

By this time the Dodgers were proudly sitting on the fact that they were the first team this year to pull such a large lead on the Yankees. They finished the game comfortably with one more hit, but no more runs.

The Yankees were not about to let a score of 10-0 stand. For a glorious moment they came alive. Warner was up and found his way to first by watching 4 balls go by. Procter flies out, Bodin flies out, and Lagstrom flies, but not out--it went up and over the fence for a two run homer. But that was the Yankees last breath.

The rest of the game was three up and three down for both teams.

Final: Dodgers 10, Yankees 1. Winning pitcher Perlstrom, losing pitcher, Andrews.
